1. Code of Conduct & Ethics

I _____, being a person aspiring to occupy BOOT Party's leadership position or occupying public office on the platform of the BOOT Party freely elects to state as follows:

- That I understand public office to be position of public trust for rendering selfless service to the people and not a means for feathering my own interest in any possible manner whatsoever;
- That I accept that to be a true servant of the people;
- That I must live in similar circumstance as an average subject of governance;
- That I will not take bribe or give bribe in any form;
- I accept that what is good for the ordinary members of the public as provided by the government of which I am an official is also good enough for me.
- I accept that I will not seek privilege treatment in all dealings;
- I accept that my position does not make me above the law or above any other Nigerian;
- I accept that I will not waste public money or use public fund for causes that does not bring glory to Nigeria;
- I accept that I am bound by the laws of the land as much as every other citizen not in public office;
- I fully agree with the BOOT Party's programme and I hold myself bound to the full and unadulterated implementation of it constitution and manifesto; and
- I accept that this code of conduct is a contract between me and members of the public and that any infraction of the terms thereof shall form ground for my recall from office.
